

2012-13 Academic Year Cal Grant Award Amounts

Check your WebGrants 4 Students account to see your college of attendance and award amount.

For the 2012-13 academic year, the following award amounts were approved through the final budget:

UC Student

The maximum Cal Grant A and Cal Grant B Tuition and Fee award will remain $12,192.

The maximum Cal Grant B Access award will be reduced from $1,551 to $1,473.

CSU Student

The maximum Cal Grant A and Cal Grant B Tuition and Fee award will remain $5,472.

The maximum Cal Grant B Access award will be reduced from $1,551 to $1,473.

Community College Student

The maximum Cal Grant B Access award will be reduced from $1,551 to $1,473.

The maximum Cal Grant C Book & Supplies award will be reduced from $576 to $547.

(Community college recipients do not receive the Cal Grant A or Cal Grant B Tuition and Fee award until they transfer to a tuition-charging college or university.)

Private Independent College or University or Private Career College Student

The maximum Cal Grant A and Cal Grant B Tuition and Fee award will be reduced from $9,708 to $9,223*~.

The maximum Cal Grant B Access award will be reduced from $1,551 to $1,473.

The maximum Cal Grant C Tuition and Fee award will be reduced from $2,592 to $2,462.

The maximum Cal Grant C Book & Supplies award will be reduced from $576 to $547.

* The actual amount of your award will be determined by your campus financial aid office by taking into consideration your college costs, your financial need, and your entire financial aid award package.

~Renewal students already in attendance at a newly ineligible school (see link entitled, "School Eligibility") may continue to use their Cal Grant at that school for the 2012-13 academic year only, but their award will be reduced by 20%. The maximum Cal Grant A and Cal Grant B Tuition and Fee award for renewal students already in attendance at a newly ineligible school will be reduced from $9,223 to $7,380. The Cal Grant B Access award and Cal Grant C awards will not be reduced from the amounts listed above.